Cheryl Alderman

After years in the corporate world at Senior Management level, working with clients such as Qantas, Coca Cola & the ASX, Cheryl made the leap into business ownership in 2012, starting her own coaching & training business. Providing a range of coaching programs, workshops & consulting services, Be Ultimate Coaching works with individuals and organisations in Australia, NZ and Internationally.

Cheryl's education includes Business, Psychology, Sociology, Coaching, Neuro-Linguistic Programming, M-Braining, Productivity and Behavioural Profiling. With that knowledge, plus a combination of leadership experience and genuine caring, Cheryl achieves fantastic results for her clients. She is a regular presenter, workshop facilitator and MC at conferences and events throughout Australasia.

Specialising in Communication and Leadership, with an NLP flavour, her presentations are interactive and engaging with plenty of energy to go around.
